Crafts Invitational

GOVETT-BREWSTER ART GALLERY 31 AUG - 23 SEPT

CRAFTS INVITATIONAL

exhibition assembled to be shown from 30th August to 23rd September 1979.

FOREWORD

The idea of a crafts invitational show was suggested two years ago at a meeting of the Friends' committee. At the time John Maynard our first director had just completed a tour of the country on behalf of the Queen Elizabeth II Arts Council seeking works for the Crafts New Zealand exhibition now being toured abroad by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. John furnished a list of craftspeople and these, plus a few others, were then invited to submit works. Most agreed and most of those who agreed have now sent in the works that form the exhibition.

I should however record a letter dated 12th July from the eminent violin maker, Ian Sweetman. It reads: "...I was going to forward one each violin and viola until the government recently revealed its attitudes and policies towards crafts in New Zealand. The position now is that I have air tickets for Australia where I shall be looking at their situation and craft climate (during August) and I shall not therefore be able to participate in your event. I wonder if this government realises, or even cares about, what damage is being done to the crafts in New Zealand. There certainly seems to be a 'bull in a china shop' at present, and I hope that the damage can be halted or minimised before it goes too far. I hope your exhibition will not be seriously affected and will add to the great reputation your gallery has already earned."

I may say that I have included the text of this letter in the submissions I am sending to the interdepartmental committee the Government has set up to look at the effect of its moves in imposing sales tax on the crafts.

The exhibition supports the contention there made that no line can be drawn between the arts and the crafts and that our craftspeople are governed in their work only incidentally by commercial considerations but first of all by an ideal of excellence. They deserve better from us.
